MunnaBhai is a happy man. He lives with his gang in the bylans of a 'dhabbi ghar' in Mumbai. takes pride in being a 'social worker' (they actually settle 'dabbi' disputes) through his booze, babes, sleep. Not much bothers MunnaBhai. Followed by a good night's sleep. MunnaBhai's father, Hari Prasad Sharma, an upright, moralistic man believes that his son is actually a doctor running a charity hospital. Every year, when his parents arrive, Munna and his gang, bothe, share their white coats and stethoscopes and pretend to be eligible doctors. The two decide that their children, both doctors, would make a perfect match. Munna tries hard to save the situation but his father discovers the truth. And all hell breaks loose. Hari Prasad Sharma, now broken by the truth, removes his white apron's 'pajama' and says, MunnaBhai then takes a decision that will change Munna's lives. He decides to become a doctor.

MunnaBhai M.B.B.S. is a hilarious and heart-warming story of a local ghori's journey into the medical world - a place he neither belongs to nor believes in. It's a classic story of the right man in the wrong place. M u n n a B h a i . M . B . B . S
